Manager Comment

October lived up to its reputation as a 'bear market killer', posting one of the best months for stocks in history. After two months of negative returns, the majority of global markets, as well as our local markets, rebounded. Major economies still faced inflationary fears, the impact of ongoing geopolitical tension, the energy crisis in Europe, more hawkish comments from the US Federal Reserve (Fed), COVID-19 cases in China climbing once again, and the outcome of the 20th National Congress of the Communist Party of China (CCP), impacting sentiment.

Global equities rebounded strongly in October to end the month positively. The MSCI World Index closed 7.18% up m/m in USD and 9.60% up m/m in ZAR. Most US stocks ended the month in the green, on the back of an incrementally more hawkish Fed and better-than-expected earnings. US economic data helped to push bond yields higher, with US 10-year government bond yields ending the month above 4%, the first month-end print above that level since early 2008 before the global financial crisis (GFC). The S&P 500 ended 8.10% up m/m. The energy sector contributed massively to the index on the back of better-than-expected earnings and buoyant energy prices. In Germany, the DAX ended the month 9.40% (EUR) higher, while France's CAC Index closed October 8.80% in the green. The UK's FTSE Index closed October 3.11% (£) higher.

Emerging markets had mixed returns for October, with the overall index coming under pressure for the month as Chinese markets fell. The MSCI EM index came in at -3.15% (USD) and -0.97% (ZAR) for the month. Qatar and Taiwan delivered negative returns (along with China), while Indonesia, Thailand and India outperformed the index. The markets of oil-exporting countries like Saudi Arabia, UAE and Kuwait also outperformed. Brazil, Korea, Mexico, Hungary and Poland also did relatively well, boosted by currency gains. After its inflation exceeding 83% in September, Turkey was the best performing EM country, as its central bank cut rates again.

SA equities rebounded in October to track global equities closely by posting positive returns for the month. The FTSE/JSE All Share index ended 4.89% up m/m. Property and financials contributed massively to the positive return by ending at 11% and 13.20% up respectively. The main disappointment came from Naspers and Prosus, dragged lower by their main underlying investment, Chinese tech company Tencent. South African 10-year bond yields ended the month unchanged, at already elevated levels of 11.30%, despite global yields generally pushing higher during the month. The South African rand weakened further against the US dollar; the rand has now weakened 13% against the greenback year-to-date. The finance minister delivered the medium-term budget during the month, showing fiscal restraint despite better-than-expected tax receipts. SA bonds (ALBI) returned 1.07% during the month and cash (STeFI) returned 0.51%.

Investment Committee

The investment committee forms an integral part of the investment management process. The investment committee members are involved in the process of multi management by participating in the Investment Committee Framework (the "Framework"). This Framework provides intermediaries with a platform to share their research and views with qualified investment professionals who will, based on certain constraints, construct a portfolio taking the intermediary's research into account.
